A Message From the Winchester Public Library

Dear Middle School students,

Many of you probably have participated in the Winchester Public Library Summer Reading Program in the past. This summer for the first time you have the opportunity to do so as a middle school student. Independent and computer based, your program allows you to record titles you read, comment on them and read other students' comments from anywhere in the world! You are anonymous. To enter you will go to the following web address: www.readsinma.org/winpublib. When you sign up initially, please come into the library for your free thank you gift. We're excited about this opportunity and look forward to sharing with you. Happy reading and sharing, Molly Wiелlette, Winchester Public Library
