Brown Face Big Master MacMillan Caribbean

By Joyce Gladwell

MacMillan Caribbean. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 192 pages. Dimensions: 7.6in. x 4.9in. x 0.6in. Joyce Gladwell grew up in Jamaica, a brown face in a country where black and white were often at opposite ends of the social scale. Big Master (in the country dialect she used as a child) is God. First published in 1969, the second edition of this open, forthright story of her life reveals a deep awareness of some of the major social issues and personal problems of our time - race, colour, human relationships, mixed marriage, the search for God. With vivid descriptions of people and her surroundings, she tells of her Jamaican school days and the attitudes and prejudices which influenced her; of her life as a psychology student at London University; of the discrimination against her which came to a head when her proposed marriage to an Englishman was opposed by his family; and of her early problems of adjustment in marriage. Edited, and with a new introduction, by Sandra Courtman, the graphic detail and sympathetic insight of this book will make compelling reading. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Although Brown Face, Big Master has been reissued by MacMillan Caribbean as part of its series of Caribbean Classics, it was first published by InterVarsity Press, the publishing arm of the InterVarsity Fellowship, and its focus is very much on tracing the development of the author's faith and relationship with God, with a lesser theme of coming to grips with racism in. The child of the principal and one of the teachers of a rural Jamaican school, Joyce Gladwell (nee Nation) grew up relatively isolated from the society around her. Her schoolmates were cautious not to get too friendly with Joyce or her twin sister, fearing that any secrets shared would find their way back to the school's master. It is not at all an evangelical account: Joyce Gladwell's own faith came to her gradually, over the course of many years, and with more than a few set-backs, and she makes no claims or and sets no expectations for others. I gave this book four stars because as well as the text of Brown Face, Big Master in this Caribbean Classic there was a substantial and fascinating introduction by the editor Sandra Courtman. Brown Face, Big Master is the Memoir of Joyce Gladwell (Malcolm Gladwell's mother). Her story takes her from harsh girl's boarding school in Jamaica to a cold and bigoted England where she studies psychology. It is an interesting insight into this young girls life.
